

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MARTIN FRUTOS, JR.,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-04-2361 GEB EFB P

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT
OF CORRECTIONS, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE
BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL
WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. By order filed November 14, 2006, the court determined that for purposes of the initial screening plaintiff's amended complaint states a cognizable claim for relief against defendants Reed, Hubbard, Wagner, Stone, Colon, Porter, Rianda, Castro, Runnels and Terhune and ordered plaintiff to provide information for service of process on form USM-285, a completed summons, sufficient copies of the amended complaint for service, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has filed the required papers. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the instructions for service of process, the completed summons, copies of the October 18, 2006 amended complaint and copies of this order to the United States Marshal.

1 2. Within ten days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal is directed to 2 notify defendants Reed, Hubbard, Wagner, Stone, Colon, Porter, Rianda, Castro, Runnels and 3 Terhune of the commencement of this action and to request a waiver of service of summons in 4 accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c).

5 3. The United States Marshal is directed to retain the sealed summons and a copy of the 6 amended complaint in their file for future use.

7 4. The United States Marshal shall file returned waivers of service of summons as well 8 as any requests for waivers that are returned as undelivered as soon as they are received.

9 5. If a waiver of service of summons is not returned by a defendant within sixty days 10 from the date of mailing the request for waiver, the United States Marshal shall:

11 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant pursuant 12 to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c) and 13 shall command all necessary assistance from the California Department of 14 Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDC) to execute this order. The United States
15 Marshal shall maintain the confidentiality of all information provided by the CDC 16 pursuant to this order.

17 b. Within ten days after personal service is effected, the United States Marshal 18 shall file the return of service for the defendant, along with evidence of any 19 attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of the costs subsequently 20 incurred in effecting service on said defendant. Said costs shall be enumerated on 21 the USM-285 form and shall include the costs incurred by the Marshal's office for 22 photocopying additional copies of the summons and amended complaint and for 23 preparing new USM-285 forms, if required. Costs of service will be taxed against 24 the personally served defendant in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ.
25 P. 4(d)(2).

26 /////

1 6. Defendants shall reply to the amended complaint within the time provided by the 2 applicable provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

3 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment, 4 motions concerning discovery, motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59 and 60 of 5 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to Local Rule 11-110 shall be briefed
6 pursuant to Local Rule 78-230(m). Failure to oppose such a motion timely may be deemed a 7 waiver of opposition to the motion. Opposition to all other motions need be filed only as 8 directed by the court.

9 8. If plaintiff is released from prison at any time during the pendency of this case, any 10 party may request application of other provisions of Local Rule 78-230 in lieu of Local Rule 78-
11 230(m). In the absence of a court order granting such a request, the provisions of Local Rule 78-12 230(m) will govern all motions described in #7 above regardless of plaintiff's custodial status.
13 See Local Rule 1-102(d).

14 9. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th Cir. 2003), plaintiff is 15 advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust 16 administrative remedies made by defendant pursuant to non-enumerated Rule 12(b) of the 17 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted 18 claims without prejudice. The defendant may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of 19 perjury and admissible documentation to support the motion to dismiss. To oppose the motion, 20 plaintiff may likewise file declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible documentation.
21 Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the complaint if the 22 complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and plaintiff calls to 23 the court's attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies. Plaintiff may serve 24 and file one or more affidavits or declarations by other persons who have personal knowledge of 25 relevant matters. Plaintiff may also rely upon written records, but plaintiff must prove that the 26 records are what plaintiff claims they are. If plaintiff fails to contradict defendant's evidence

1 with admissible evidence, the court may rely on the defendant's evidence. In the event both 2 sides submit matters outside the pleadings, the court may look beyond the pleadings and decide 3 disputed issues of fact. If plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the motion, the 4 court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendant's motion. If the 5 defendant's motion to dismiss, whether opposed or unopposed, is granted, plaintiff's 6 unexhausted claims will be dismissed without prejudice.

7 10. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc), cert.
8 denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), plaintiff 9 is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion for summary judgment made by 10 defendants pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a 11 request for an order for judgment in favor of defendants without trial. A defendant's motion for 12 summary judgment will set forth the facts that the defendants contend are not reasonably subject
13 to dispute and that entitle the defendants to judgment. To oppose a motion for summary 14 judgment, plaintiff must show proof of his or her claims. Plaintiff may do this in one or more of 15 the following ways. Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the 16 complaint if the complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and 17 plaintiff calls to the court's attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies.
18 Plaintiff may serve and file one or more affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that 19 plaintiff believes prove plaintiff's claims; the person who signs an affidavit or declaration must 20 have personal knowledge of the facts stated. Plaintiff may rely upon written records, but 21 plaintiff must prove that the records are what plaintiff claims they are. Plaintiff may rely upon 22 all or any part of the transcript of one or more depositions, answers to interrogatories, or 23 admissions obtained in this proceeding. If plaintiff fails to contradict the defendants' evidence 24 with counteraffidavits or other admissible evidence, the defendants' evidence may be taken as 25 the truth and the defendants' motion for summary judgment granted. If there is some good 26 reason why such facts are not available to plaintiff when required to oppose a motion for

1 summary judgment, the court will consider a request to postpone considering the defendants'
2 motion. If plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the motion or a request to 3 postpone consideration of the motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of 4 opposition to the defendants' motion. If the defendants' motion for summary judgment, whether 5 opposed or unopposed, is granted, judgment will be entered for the defendants without a trial and 6 the case will be closed.

7 11. A motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or declarations will be 8 stricken.

9 12. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times while the 10 action is pending. Any change of address must be reported promptly to the court in a separate 11 document captioned for this case and entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice of 12 change of address must be properly served on other parties. Pursuant to Local Rule 83-182(f), 13 service of documents at the record address of a party is fully effective. Failure to inform the 14 court of a change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of the 15 action.

16 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a copy of the Local Rules of Court.

17 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil 18 Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but 19 not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.

20 DATED: January 19, 2007.
